Your Local Shredding Company... Nationwide.

Are you currently a large commercial account looking to receive a free quote on pricing, or a formal response to a request for pricing? North American Shredding has the ability to provide an account specific program that is both secure and relevant to your individual business needs. With over 100 plus member locations nationwide, North American Shredding has the ability to present, price, and offer services immediately.

Is your business looking to price and schedule a regular service that is both secure and compliant? Allow us to explain the many options your location have at their disposal when discussing this type of service. Utilizing secure standard office consoles, 64 gallon bins, and industrial 95 gallon bins, we have the ability to match your offices output of sensitive documents, to the amount of service pickups requested. Rates are per unit or location. Once again we do not price per minute of shred or per pound, allowing you to understand what you're paying for.
